

The Work

Rev. Bill Spangler-Dunning, regional minister for the Upper Midwest

As a regional Minister, I walked along side a pastor who was anxious, discouraged in feeling that his ministry was undermined, and helpless that he was not making the money that he needed to provide for his family. He had an unhealthy pattern of moving from region to region. Before making this last move, I was able to work with him to get counseling. As a Christmas gift, he is now able to re-engage with a church that is interested in hiring him, and who now may extend a call to him on Christmas Eve. What a gift to this pastor and the church!
